Woodcrest Villa Arboretum is Dedicated To Those Recognized with Trees

Frontage to Harrisburg Pike is Open to Honor & Memory Trees

Honor & Memory Trees can be planted in the Arboretum's new expansion area and, now, areas along Harrisburg Pike approved by Facilities. A Swamp Red Oak was the first tree to be planted along Harrisburg Pike. A photo of the new tree being planted is to the left. The other photos were taken on our campus on Good Friday.

The Red Maples on campus have small red flowers blooming in clusters called racemes.

Lesser Celandine is a sea of yellow along Swarr Run.

Daffodils are in bloom by the bench between the Arboretum and the Nature Trail.

More birdhouses have been placed around campus, even near the veteran's memorial garden.
