Timeless Wisdom Beneath the Canopy: Inspiring Quotes to Celebrate Trees and Their Stewards This New Year

A tree is beautiful, but what's more, it has a right to life; like water, the sun, and the stars, it is essential. Life on earth is inconceivable without trees.

— Anton Chekhov

Someone's sitting in the shade today because someone planted a tree a long time ago.

— Warren Buffet

When you plant a tree you plant a legacy.

— Pepper Provenzano

Landscapes of great wonder and beauty lie under our feet and all around us. They are discovered in the tunnels in the ground, the heart of flowers, the hollows of trees, fresh-water ponds, seaweed jungles between tides, and even drops of water.

— Walt Disney

The Lorax: A tree falls the way it leans. Be careful which way you lean.

— Dr. Seuss, The Lorax

I think of trees and how simply they let go.

— May Sarton

Perhaps a man's character is like a tree, and his reputation like a shadow; the shadow is what we think of it; the tree is the real thing.

— President Abraham Lincoln

The true meaning of life is to plant trees, under whose shade you do not expect to sit.

— Nelson Henderson

Love trees until their leaves fall off, then encourage them to try again next year.

— Chad Sugg

I'm planting a tree to remind me to be open and kind-hearted.

— Andrea Koehle Jones

The cultivation of flowers and trees is the cultivation of the good, the beautiful, and the ennobling in man, and for one, I wish to see this culture become universal.

— J. Sterling Morton

Learn character from trees, values from roots, and change from leaves.

— Tasneem Hameed

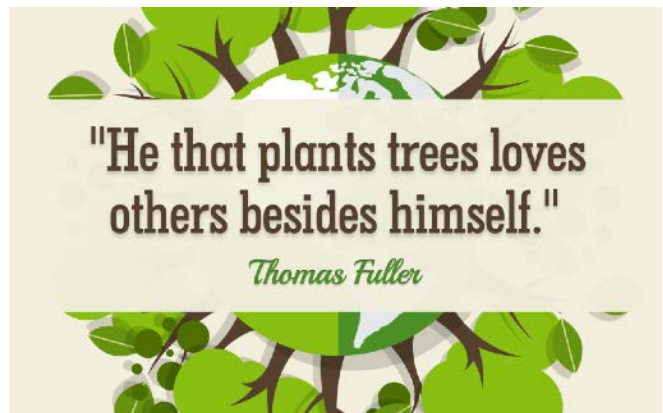

I've never before knew the full value of trees. My house is entirely embosomed in high plane-trees, with good grass below; and under them, I breakfast, dine, write, read, and receive my company.

— Thomas Jefferson

There's nothing wrong with having a tree as a friend.

— Bob Ross
